

Aliaksandr Yasinski – accordion player, composer, and music producer.

Aliaksandr was born in Baranavichy, Belarus. He studied at the musical school in Baranavichy, State Belarusian Musical College, Belarusian State Academy of Music and Prague Conservatory and Academy of Performing Arts in Prague as an accordion player, conductor, sound engineer and composer. He has won prizes at several musical competitions in Belarus and abroad.

Aliaksandr has played concerts in Belarus, Ukraine, Lithuania, Russia, Poland, Czechia, Slovakia, Germany, Austria, Croatia, Sweden, Denmark, France, Luxemburg, Hungary, Kuwait and Southern Korea, either as part of different collaborative musical projects or his own solo performances. You can hear his accordion playing on more than 20 LP releases.

In September 2022 Yasinski released his first solo album Hlybini on British label Riverboat music by World Music Network. The record was listed in 15 best albums of World Music Charts Europe in October 2022.

Aliaksandr's main aim is to provide the accordion music without any stylistic borders – sometimes you can hear Aliaksandr playing classical music (performed solo with several orchestras in Belarus, Czechia, Slovakia), rock, electronic music, jazz, Argentinian tango, Balkan and his own compositions. He also creates music for films and theater as well as works with his main musical projects: RAZAM a Iva Marešová, Shum Davar, Radka Fišarová, Jazz Gypsy N Tango.

www.yasinski.eu

<https://www.facebook.com/yasinskimusic>

<https://www.youtube.com/AliaksandrYasinski>

<https://open.spotify.com/artist/0Wf1JqXrgeAVqqOU5hXq8v>